PEUGEOT L45 SLOT CAR BY VELASOR

This is just the second slot car from Velasor, and one glance at the L45 – assembled by hand and featuring details such as working suspension – will tell you why new models are not released more frequently. Four iterations of the Peugeot are available, this one a likeness of the car driven to bits at the 1914 French GP by the magnificent Georges Boillot, who sat weeping at the wheel when the engine finally gave up. 'HONDA MOTOCOMPO' BY LANE SKELTON

Honda's 'suitcase' bike turns 40 this year, but the collapsible cult classic, which was designed to fit neatly into the boot of a tiny Honda City, looks as fresh and fun as ever. $75. laneskeltondesign.com

SUIXTIL ANGOULÊME SHIRT

The short-sleeved Angoulême is offered in six colours, but all feature the same blue-and-white triband patch at the first button – a nod to the Argentine flag and Juan Manuel Fangio, who often wore this style of shirt in the 1950s. $140. suixtil.com
